Stewart Knight creates painted images and sculptures using various layering techniques with paint, varnishes, two dimensional and three dimensional materials. He creates dream-like worlds filled with simplistic visions that layer together, along with characters interlaced between his real and almost dream-like thoughts. Some days can be ethereal and light and playful... other worlds can be heavy, dark and forboden, with disenchanted shadows and an almost nightmarish feel. Stewart currently works out of SpinStar Studio - the #6 studio located

Raised with a large family on an a working horse farm in Belews Creek NC, Cheryl fell in love with art at an early age. Colors, forms and vibrations of patterns spoke to her clearly then and they have been continuously guiding her path towards an ever creative future. Cheryl always knew she would be an artist, and that her pursuit of art was to bring happiness to the world through her talents. After many years of focused classical training and study she followed in the footsteps of the Classical Masters to advance her skills. This education has raised her work to higher levels of ability, resulting in both her body painting and commissioned paintings receiving national, local and global accolades. Currently Cheryl is located with a working studio in downtown Winston Salem NC where she exhibits collections in national galleries and welcomes commissions from around

Raman Bhardwaj was selected among 5 Triad artists for ArtPop Triad 2019 Street gallery. This program is run by ArtPop in partnership with the Arts Council of Winston Salem and Forsyth county. Raman's winning entry artwork will remain on display on highway billboards (sponsored by Lamar Advertizing) for one whole year in the triad area. The artwork will be rotated in different places on highway billboards. The colorful and playful piece is titled "Flight of Fancy". It is a digital art work that speaks about a world without border, a fantasy land where everyone is floating in an ecstatic mood. In this illustrative art we see animals, pets and humans of different cultures and colors flying on a journey of happiness. This is intended to bring a smile on the face of commuters/viewers since everyone is chasing happiness in life and wants to feel free and weightless.
