Growing up in the heart of Winston Salem, North Carolina, Shari started taking pictures as a young child by using disposable cameras and the many film rolls found in her Mother's secret stash. In her early 20's she was gifted an old Canon DSLR camera... from there the digital world of photography exploded in her hands and has become a way for Shari to express her life in a way that words never could. Pictures have always seemed to take a moment and sense of calming, but also feel the urge to want to go outside for themselves and explore the possibilities that proach to all of her hiking and travel adventures.

Sweet Aromaz aka House of Paradox has called a command performance and will be featuring a collection of work by Stewart Knight in a showing titled "The Great Call Back" for the month of March.

The Daffodils are out and a new exhibit has been installed at Salem College June Porter Johnson Gallery. The Alumni exhibit was curated by Carolina Corona of Corona Fine Art. Stop by to see her work and take home your favorite piece from now until the end of April. Also, while you're there check out the art-o-mat machine and get some of her mini landscape paintings

Starting March 22nd Carolina Corona will also exhibit her latest work at ACES Gallery in Wilmington, North Carolina. Her Solo Exhibit focuses on the element of water and preserving the beauty that preserves the planet and the human race. The show's opening reception is during the fourth Friday
